

Course Outcome

Dept. of Humanities

Subject: Philosophy

B. N. M. College, Barhiya

Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya

CC1 : DEDUCTIVE LOGIC

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the students will be able to:

- CO 01 Define Logic and its subject-matter.
- CO 02 Discern the usage of language to differentiate the different applications of language effectively.
- CO 03 Analyze the flaws in the argument, which we use in our day-to-day life, and avoid them.

CC2 : Scientific Method

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Differentiate between scientific and popular way of reasoning.
- CO 02 Enhance the reasoning skills and develop grounds for rejecting the wrong arguments.
- CO 03 Create stance for eliminating superstitious beliefs and formulate ways for strong arguments.

CC3 : EPISTEMOLOGY

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Understand the relationship of Philosophy with Science, Religion and Culture.
- CO 02 Conceive various epistemological theories of knowing so that students can be introduced to varieties of materialistic accounts and casual theories of mind.
- CO 03 Analyze the theories to ascertain the truth of arguments which we use in our day-to-day life.

CC4 : METAPHYSICS

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Explore the conflicting thoughts pertaining to life, existence and the world.
- CO 02 Understand the basic debates and concepts that metaphysics traditionally tries to convey. Enhance the reasoning skills and develop grounds for rejecting the wrong arguments.
- CO 03 Trace the emergence of metaphysical ideas in different phases of human thought.

CC5 : Western Ethics

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Develop a better orientation from ethical viewpoint. It will help them in leading a better life in which they will know what they are doing and why.
- CO 02 Understand and interpret issues concerning human conduct with a more rational approach.
- CO 03 Achieve philosophical clarity in a given situation of different moral issues.

CC6 : Indian Ethics

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Develop a better understanding of Indian ethical tradition.
- CO 02 Understand and interpret contemporary ethical issues of human behaviour with significantly more rational perspective.

[Signature]
Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya

CC7 : Ancient Indian Philosophy

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Develop a better understanding of ancient Indian philosophical heritage.
- CO 02 To understand the cultural heritage of Indian Tradition.

CC8 : Medieval Indian Philosophy

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Develop a better orientation towards Indian philosophical heritage with a rational viewpoint.
- CO 02 Understand and interpret issues concerning trends of contemporary Indian philosophy.
- CO 03 Achieve philosophical clarity of Indian traditions in philosophy.

CC9 : Modern Western Philosophy

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will have to:

- CO 01 Understand the basic trends of Western philosophy such as rationalism, empiricism and criticism.
- CO 02 To understand how philosophical movements emerged in the western world with academic and socio-economic growth.

CC10 : Philosophy of Religion

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Learn to think philosophically about religion.
- CO 02 Gain knowledge about religion (or life stance) other than in which they are born, and by promoting critical thinking about religion, make them religiously tolerant, which is essential for a multi religious and humanistic society like India.

CC11 : Social Philosophy

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Define the nature of Social philosophy and its relations to Sociology and political Science.
- CO 02 Know rights and duties of Individuals and characteristics of institutions through socio-political approach of the subject.
- CO 03 Learn the notion of co-existence in a society with multicultural setup.

Ashutosh Kumar
Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya

CC12 : Political Philosophy

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Define the nature of Political philosophy and its relations to political Science.
- CO 02 Know rights and duties of Individuals and characteristics of institutions through socio political approach of the subject.
- CO 03 Mould themselves into better citizens by understanding the notion of democracy and a set of other ideologies.
- CO 04 Learn the notion of co-existence in a society with multicultural setup.

CC13 : Symbolic Logic

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Define Symbolic Logic and its subject-matter.
- CO 02 Differentiate between simple and different kinds of compound statements.
- CO 03 Test the validity of an argument using truth tables and understand the concept of logical equivalence.

CC14: Philosophical Analysis

Course Outcomes

After the completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01 Understand basic concepts of semantics and understand the relationship between language and the world.
- CO 02 Differentiate between different meanings of "meaning", and different kinds of "definitions".
- CO 03 Use language in more efficient way with clarity.

GE 1 : Indian Philosophy

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the foundations of the Indian philosophical ideas.
- CO 02: understand the concepts of the development of the Indian philosophical schools
- CO 03: develop a perspective on the different Indian methods to analyse the different problems of philosophy

GE 02 : Modern Western Philosophy

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the foundations of the modern western Philosophy
- CO 02: understand the concepts of the development of the modern philosophical ideas.
- CO 03: develop a perspective on the different methods to analyse the different philosophical problems.

GE3 : Metaphysics

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the metaphysical ideas and their significance in Philosophy
- CO 02: understand the concepts of the development of the different metaphysical theories.
- CO 03: develop a perspective on the methods employed to solve the different problems related to metaphysics.

Principal
Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya

DSE- 09: Comparative Religion

Course Outcome:

On completion of the course, the students will be able to:

CO 01: understand the importance of comparative study of religion for doing philosophy of Religion

CO 02: understand the basic concepts of different religions and develop religious tolerance.

DSE 10 : Fundamentals of Yoga

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

CO 01: develop a perspective on the philosophical foundation of Yoga

CO 02: understand the concepts of the methods of Yoga

CO 03: be aware of the relation between Yoga and health.

Bhupendra Kumar
Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya

GE4 : Epistemology

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the epistemological ideas as the foundation of the different philosophical ideas
- CO 02: understand the concepts of the development of the different epistemological theories
- CO 03: develop a perspective on the methods developed to solve the problems related to epistemology.

GE5 : Ethics and Religion

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the philosophical foundation of the ethical ideas.
- CO 02: understand the concepts of the development of the religious beliefs.
- CO 03: be aware of the rational approach on the sensitive topics regarding religions.

GE6 : Fundamentals of Yoga

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the philosophical foundation of Yoga
- CO 02: understand the concepts of the methods of Yoga
- CO 03: be aware of the relation between Yoga and health.

DSE 1 : Philosophy of Science

Course Outcome:

On completion of the course, the students will be able to:

- CO 01 understand philosophy of science with reference Stephen Toulmin and Karl Popper.
- CO 02 After having studied scientific method as a stepping stone, the students will gain new insights into aims, methods and achievements of sciences – both physical and social.

DSE 02 : Modern Indian Philosophy

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: easily comprehend the basics and traits of Modern Indian Philosophy.
- CO 02: learn the basic developments in modern Indian thought.
- CO 03: assess the significance of Indian philosophical pursuits in the contemporary Global Map.

Abhishek Kumar
Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya

[Signature]

DSE 03: Buddhism

Course Outcome:

After completion of the course students will be made known about the life and teachings of Lord Buddha. This course will emphasis on the role of Buddhism plays in the day to day life of the people. The concept of 'Peace' is central to Buddhism, which society needs the most today.

DSE 04 : Ethics and Moral Philosophy

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: understand the philosophical foundation of the development of ethical and moral thoughts.
- CO 02: develop the perspective to look at the ethical and moral aspects of human actions.
- CO 03: understand the values of ethical and moral significance with the underlying philosophical foundation.

DSE 05 : Philosophy of Religion

Course Outcome

After completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- CO 01: develop a perspective on the philosophical foundation of the religious ideas.
 - CO 02: understand the concepts of the development of the religious beliefs.
 - CO 03: be aware of the rational approach on the sensitive topics regarding religions.
-

DSE- 6 : Yoga

Course Outcome:

On completion of the course, the students will be able to:

- CO 01 understand the theoretical aspect of yoga, particularly astangik marg.
- CO 02 learn practice some asanas and pranayam

DSE- 7: Lokayat/Charvaka

Course Outcome:

On completion of the course, the students will be able to:

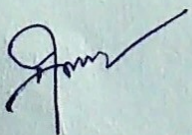

- CO 01 have a deeper understanding of Lokayat and will be able to compare with relevant, ancient Greek philosophers
- CO 02 Gain knowledge of Lokayat from Buddhist Sources

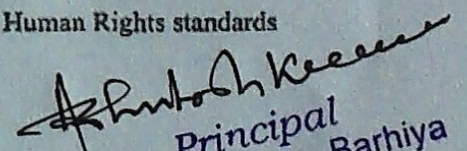

DSE- 8: Human Rights

Course Outcome:

On completion of the course, the students will be able to:

- CO 01: understand the meaning of Human Rights movement and International Human Rights standards
- CO 02: understand the mechanism for implementing Human Rights

Principal
B.N.M. College, Barhiya